Adult Bible Study: It is NEVER too late to join us. For those interested in attending this week we will be meeting remotely only, an invite to the remote meeting will be sent out on Wednesday. This week we are reading Exodus Chapters 1-5.

PLEASE SAVE THE DATE: February 27th will be our Annual Parish Meeting. A letter will be coming out in the next few weeks with proxy information and attendance RSVPs. Please take the time to return the RSVP as we need a definitive headcount for the brunch.

THANK YOU – to the following families for their very generous donations to the Building Fund for repairs around the church: Catherine Shaffer (In memory of Lesky and Shaffer families), Judy Ann Huzar, and Kathleen Sica..

THANK YOU – to the Sr. UOL and the Men's Club for their donations to the parish for Christmas. Your endeavors are greatly appreciated.

THANK YOU – to Mr. & Mrs. Gaylord Sohayda for donating towards the Nativity Flowers.

James vs. Jacob: From the Latin Iacob, which was from the Greek Ἰακώβ (Iakob), which was from the Hebrew name יַעֲקֹב (Ya'aqov). In the Old Testament Jacob (later called Israel) is the son of Isaac and Rebecca and the father of the twelve founders of the twelve tribes of Israel. He was born holding his twin brother Esau's heel, and his name is explained as meaning "holder of the heel" or "supplanter", because he twice deprived his brother of his rights as the firstborn son (see Genesis 27:36).

The English names Jacob and James derive from the same source, with James coming from Latin Iacomus, a later variant of the Latin New Testament form Iacobus. Unlike English, many languages do not have separate spellings for the two names.

In England, Jacob was mainly regarded as a Jewish name during the Middle Ages, though the variant James was used among Christians. Jacob came into general use as a Christian name after the Protestant Reformation. In America, although already moderately common, it steadily grew in popularity from the early 1970s to the end of the 1990s, becoming the top ranked name from 1999 to 2012.

ALL EMERGENCIES: PLEASE MAKE SURE TO CALL FATHER JAMES for any and all emergencies – for hospital, nursing home, or home visitations. PLEASE call his Cell number 732-619-3259, if necessary, please leave a voice message, Father will return your call. THANK YOU.
